

GETTING MARRIED IN NEW YORK STATE

You need a license to be married in New York State.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

Q: Where do you get a marriage license?

A couple that intends to be married in New York State must apply in person for a marriage license to any Town or City Clerk in the State. The application for a license must be signed by the bride and groom in the presence of the Town or City Clerk.

A representative cannot apply for the license on behalf of the bride or groom. This applies even if the representative has been given the Power of Attorney. Additionally, notarized marriage license affidavits cannot be substituted for their personal appearance.

Q: Is there a waiting period?

Yes, the marriage ceremony may not take place within 24 hours from the exact time that the license was issued. When both applicants are 16 years of age or older, the 24-hour waiting period may be waived by an order of a Justice of the Supreme Court or a Judge of the County Court of the county in which either the bride or groom resides. If either person is under 16 years of age, the order must be from the Family Court Judge of the county in which the person under 16 years of age resides.

Q: How long is the license valid?

A marriage license is valid for 60 days, beginning 24 hours after it is issued.

Q: How much does it cost?

The fee is $40.00 for the license and $10.00 for an additional Certificate of Marriage Registration if needed. The latter is automatically sent by the Clerk to the applicants within 15 days after the completed license is returned by the officiant. It serves as notice that a record of the marriage is on file. Couples who do not receive a Certificate of Marriage Registration within four weeks of the wedding should contact the Town or City Clerk who issued the license.

Q: Is a premarital physical exam required?

No premarital examination or blood test is required to obtain a marriage license in New York State.

Q: Who can get married?

- If either applicant is 16 or 17 years of age, such applicant (s) must present the written consent of both parents.

- If both applicants are 18 years of age or older, no consents are required.

- The other parent has been missing for one year preceding the application.

- The other parent has been judged incompetent.

If you've been married before . . .

Information regarding ALL previous marriages must be furnished in the application for a marriage license. This includes whether the former spouse or spouses are living, and whether the applicants are divorced persons and, if so, when, where and against whom the divorce or divorces were granted. A certified copy of each Decree of Divorce or a Certificate of Dissolution of Marriage is required by the clerk issuing the marriage license.

Q: What are the surname options?

Every person has the right to adopt any name by which he or she wishes to be known simply by using that name consistently and without intent to defraud. A person's last name (surname) does not automatically change upon marriage and neither party to the marriage must change his or her last name. The bride and groom need not take the same last name.

One or both parties to a marriage may elect to change the surname by which he or she wishes to be known after the marriage by entering the new name in the appropriate space provided on the marriage license. The new name must consist of one of the following options:

- The surname of the other spouse
- Any former surname of either spouse
- A name combining into a single surname all or a segment of the pre-marriage surname or any former surname of each spouse

- A combination name separated by a hyphen, provided that each part of such combination surname is the pre-marriage surname, or any former surname, of each of the spouses.

The use of this option will provide a record of your change of name. The marriage certificate, containing the new name, if any, is proof that the use of the new name, or the retention of the former name, is lawful. Whether you decide to use or not use this option at the time of your marriage license application, you still have the right to adopt a different name through usage at some future date. However, your marriage license cannot be changed to record a surname you decide to use after your marriage.
