COMMENTS FROM THE COUNCILMEMBERS AFTER RESOLUTIONS

Councilmember Gilbert ó Nothing at this time, Mr. President.

Councilmember Smilinich ó I just want to thank the Boyø and Girlø Club for the awesome baseball game, softball, whatever they were playing.

Councilmember Hall ó Nothing at this time.

Councilmember Koch ó Iød also like to thank the Boyø and Girlø Club, and City Officials for a game this past Friday. The City won game one, I think 16-10, and we lost game two a lot to a little, and I look forward to upcoming Boyø and Girlø Club interacting City events.

Mayor Davis ó Iød like to thank the Courier and Buffalo News for writing spots for the Hometown Heroes Banner Program starting here in the City, and I encourage everybody to share that with any family, friends, loved ones that qualify to have a banner put up on our street light poles. Second Annual COT City Wide Clean Up event met this Saturday in memory of Jed Woomer. I would encourage anybody from 9:00 A.M. to 1:00 P.M. to come out and help some wonderful people do some great things in our community. As was mentioned, the softball game, Iød like to thank Councilwomen Koch and Smilinich for putting that together. We actually won the first game, 17-10 which I was part of the winning team and I had to leave to go to a family party and our team tanked after that, so I think I have the answer as to why. Lastly, Pastor Ciffa presided over the baptism two weekends ago of my grandson and did an absolutely fabulous job. It was a very touching, very moving ceremony and I know he left but Iød like to thank him for honoring my family by doing the baptism.

Council President Zeisz ó Thank you to all of you for coming tonight, have a great night, drive home safely and I think the sun might even be back out now. You know what they say in WNY, if you donø like the weather, just stick around for a few minutes. Have a great night, God Bless you.
